

SOMERSET BOOKS

Title	Description	No of Pages	Cover	Price (UK)	Price (OS)
Barwick &amp; Stoford - Chatterbox Revisited	Chatterbox, "The Voice of Barwick & Stoford" was the villages' quarterly magazine from August 2004 to September 2014. The history items from the magazine have been brought together in this booklet to ensure that these important articles are not lost in the mists of time.	52	Soft	£ 8.53	£ 13.83
Bath History – Volume X, 2005	(ed Brenda Buchanan) Historical articles, including: "The Hundred of Bath in 1086 and Before", "At the Gates of Hell – The Seamy Side of Life in 17th Century Bath" and "Bath's Forgotten Gunpowder History – The Powder Mills at Woolley in the 18th Century".	192	Soft	£ 13.44	£ 19.49
"Burtle, Gie I" – A Village Apart	(C S John Sparkes) The story of a Somerset moorland village, located in in the midst of the opt flooded Somerset Levels. Presents many aspects of Burtle, including the earliest settlers, the railway and the important turf trade of recent years. Includes a detailed account of the everyday life of the village.	255	Soft	£ 15.84	£ 23.39
Castle Cary and Ansford, Memories of	(The Living History Group) A collection of reminiscences of life in the two communities during much of the 20th Century – Illustrated.	179	Soft	£ 10.43	£ 16.48
Chard, Around	(Gerald Gosling & Frank Huddy) A small format 'Pocket Images' book, containing over 200 photographs of the town and its neighbouring villages from the turn of the century up to the 1970s.	128	Soft	£ 8.84	£ 14.14
Charlton Hawthorne - Village Voices	(Jenny Peet) Reminiscences of nineteen residents of the village. A most interesting collection of residents from earlier in the 20th century.	100	Soft	£ 7.94	£ 13.24
Charltons, Life in the – The Station Years 1905 To 1962	(Janet Baillie) Stories of the people who lived in Charlton Adam and Charlton Mackrell during the years the villages had a station.	50	Soft	£ 8.70	£ 14.75
Cheddar Through Time	(Andrew Pickering & Nicola Foster) A fascinating selection of over 180 photographs traces some of the many ways in which Cheddar has changed over the last century. The pictures are arranged in a 'then and now' fashion, so that direct comparisons may be made between today's colour photograph and the old one.	96	Soft	£ 18.43	£ 24.48
Coker Canvas - The Textile Industry of the Somerset/Dorset Border	(Richard Sims) Coker Canvas provides the first detailed account of the textile trade in the area around East and West Coker. Textiles have formed the core of area's economy from the 17th century and, although not as important as it once was, its contribution continues to the present day. All known manufacturers are detailed, from those based on the cottage industry through the workshop era and ending with factories. Family relationships are given to help follow the links between them.	145	Soft.	£ 17.30	£ 29.00
Coker: Bucked in the Yarn	(Terry Stevens) For centuries, Coker has stood as a beacon of craftsmanship, its legacy intricately entwined with the production of Coker Canvas, a fabric renowned for its durability, strength and unparalleled quality. This book delves deeper into the heart the villages most closely involved, East, North and West Coker, and their people, unravelling the threads of time to reveal the stories of the skilled artisans who meticulously crafted each yard of canvas. The book is available for over the counter purchase at the Society's Research Centre. Purchases sent by mail will be shipped by the publishers, Graffeg Books, and only to UK customers.	128	Hard	£ 29.10	N/A
Chinnock, West and Middle - Remembering a Generation - The World War One Servicemen of	(Phil Nichols) A detailed look at the lives of 86 servicemen who were born in, or who lived in, the village before or during the Great War. In addition to the standard research sources for the period, the author has been able to contact the relatives of 56 of the men, and then use family recollections and photographs kindly supplied by those relatives.	90	Soft	£ 15.30	£ 25.40
Crosse Connections – A 19th Century Scientist and His Family	(John Porter) During the 18th, 19th and early 20th centuries the Crosse family of Broomfield, Somerset, had a remarkable number of interesting and controversial members. Their stories are explored.	60	Soft	£ 5.03	£ 10.33
Dwellys National Records Vol 1	(Repro. Copy of 1916 original.) Hearth Tax for Somerset 1664-65 copied from the rolls in the Public Record Office.	239	Soft	£ 16.54	£ 26.64
Dwellys National Records Vol 2	(Repro. Copy of 1932 original.) 17th century Directory of Somerset. The names of all persons paying tax or exempt and drawn from the Lay Subsidy Rolls of the period.	320	Soft	£ 18.04	£ 28.59
Experiences of a 19th Century Gentleman	(ed Derek Gill) The Diary of Thomas Bunn of Frome. An extensive introduction to the Bunn family is followed by diary extracts from the 1830s and 1840s.	196	Soft	£ 13.64	£ 21.39

Title	Description	No of Pages	Cover	Price (UK)	Price (OS)
Frome (Crime And Punishment in Regency Frome)	(ed Michael McGarvie) The journals of Isaac Gregory, Constable of Frome (1813-14 & 1817-18). Includes photographs and a good index.	64	Soft	£ 12.53	£ 18.58
Frome – A-Z of	(Mick Davis and David Lassman) In this book the local authors take a journey through Frome to discover some significant and little-known aspects of its rich and varied past. From buildings and streets to people and events, the book highlights fascinating aspects of the town's history, including stories of UFO sightings, a world-famous Roman coin hoard, local inns and the search for underground tunnels. The many photographs include some of the oldest-known pictures of the market in 1865, the George Hotel, scene of a riot in 1832, and an aerial photograph of the town in 1925.	96	Soft	£ 18.42	£ 21.41
Frome in 50 Buildings	(Alastair Macleay) Situated at the eastern end of the Mendip hills, the Somerset market town of Frome has a wealth of history, much of which lies waiting to be discovered among the architectural gems that line its scenic streets. Frome has the most listed buildings of any town in Somerset. In this book, the author highlights fifty of the town's finest buildings and structures from the fifteenth through to the twentieth centuries, and a street map is included showing where each building is located. Pictures of the buildings are provided, with some before and after views where a building has been renovated.	96	Soft	£ 18.42	£ 21.41
Frome in the Great War	(David Lassman) Men from Frome and the surrounding area experienced action in all the theatres of war that the global conflict encompassed, and they took part in the numerous battles and campaigns, on land and sea, that have become synonymous with that conflict - Ypres, Gallipoli, Jutland and the Somme. Frome's civilian population received a special commendation after the war for its effort throughout it. Using letters, diaries, photographs, newspaper reports and eyewitness accounts the author has assembled the story of the town during the Great War.	106	Soft	£ 16.43	£ 22.48
Frome Murders and Misdemeanours	(Mick Davis & David Lassman) The authors have delved into the local records of Frome, historically one of the largest towns in Somerset, to reveal the dark side of life for ordinary people through the ages. The stories include a trial for witchcraft and the role of the vicar of Frome, a sadistic murder of the serving girl by her mistress and her mistress' daughter, the parish constable's account of his day-to-day dealing with domestic violence, drunkenness and general disorder, and many others.	94	Soft.	£ 19.52	£ 25.57
Frome Street and Place Names	(Michael McGarvie) A review of the origins and meanings of Frome street names, based on an original paper written by Rev W E Daniel, Vicar of East Pennard, in the late 1890s. The information has now been updated with the latest research carried out by the Frome Historical Research Group.	52	Soft	£ 8.65	£ 14.15
Frome Through the Ages	(Michael McGarvie) An anthology of items extracted from original documents, to illustrate the life and activities of Frome from earliest times to the present century.	176	Soft	£ 8.44	£ 14.49
Frome, Around	(Michael McGarvie) Includes about 200 old photographs relevant to the area.	128	Soft	£ 16.43	£ 22.48
Frome, The Book of	(Michael McGarvie) A history of Frome covering more than a century. Includes many photographs and an excellent index. For this new (fifth) edition the photographs in the book have been enhanced to provide better reproduction. The biography and index have also been expanded so that they are of better use to the reader.	163	Soft	£ 18.44	£ 24.90
Frome, The Buildings of	(Rodney D Goodall) A study of the development of Frome and its buildings over a period of more than 1300 years, including churches, inns, public building, commercial building and houses. Includes 40 photographs.	149	Soft	£ 12.10	£ 16.20
Glastonbury Through Time	(Steve Wallis) A fascinating selection of over 170 photographs traces some of the many ways in which Glastonbury has changed over the last century. The pictures are arranged in a 'then and now' fashion, so that direct comparisons may be made between today's colour photograph and the old one.	95	Soft	£ 18.43	£ 24.48
Good Old Somersets – An Old Contemptible Battalion in 1914	(Brian Gillard) A day-to-day chronicle of the 1st Battalion Somerset Light Infantry – Aug to Dec 1914.	164	Soft	£ 18.43	£ 24.48

Title	Description	No of Pages	Cover	Price (UK)	Price (OS)
Hardington Mandeville, A Peewit in Waretime - A Childs War in Somerset	(Gordon Rendell). The author, aged three at the start of the war in 1939, experienced the following six years with a sharp intensity. Having an enquiring mind and time of his hands, he studied the village characters and was often caught up in their activities. At the age of seven he could be asked to cycle over to a local farmer to sort out his stationary engine, normally the float chamber full of hay seeds. There are several quality group photographs, and the author has been able to name a fair number of them.	112	Hard	£ 16.92	£ 24.47
Henstridge, A Somerset Village &amp; the First World War – Lest We Forget	(Caroline Rowland) Packed full of original research and more than 90 black and white photographs, this study tells the story of how Henstridge dealt with the First World War, of the men who served and their families and pieces together the life of another era.	192	Soft	£ 19.79	£ 27.43
Henstridge Somerset, A History of	(F C Wakeford) Produced by St Nicholas Church of England Primary School, Henstridge. A reproduction of the original. Begins with primeval Henstridge and continues up to the mid 1900s. Includes information about the parish, church, school, local societies and the railway.	31	Soft	£ 6.53	£ 11.83
High Ham - A Somerset Parish 1895-1965	Memories of Village Life in High Ham, Low Ham & Henley (High Ham Parish Community Project) The parish is remarkable for the large number of residents whose families have lived and farmed here for generations. Many of these families have given personal accounts of village life and contributed photographs for this book. Contains over 250 photographs with many of the individuals named.	120	Soft	£ 20.14	£ 30.69
High Ham- Just a P.C. to Let You Know	(Grace Rubery) A collection of early 20th century postcards found in an album belonging to a High Ham family. The postcards are reproduced in this booklet, together with a transcription of the message, and identification of the sender and recipient where this is known.	28	Soft	£ 4.38	£ 6.93
Journeys, Weather and the Unexpected	(A E Cornelius) More memories from Austin Cornelius, this time discussing changes in the weather during the 20th century, and a collection of interesting stories mostly from his early life.	22	Soft	£ 2.43	£ 4.66
Kingsmead and Weston, Childhood Memories – Growing Up in	(Pauline Forrest) An account of a working class childhood in Bath in the 1920s and 1930s. A vivid evocation of a city changed almost beyond recognition – a city of tramcars, lodging houses, street vendors, midwinter dips in the flooded river and charabanc trips to the seaside. Includes nearly forty photographs.	91	Soft	£ 10.03	£ 16.08
King's Peace, The	(ed Michael McGarvie) A transcription of the Justice's Notebooks of Thomas Horner of Mells, 1770 – 1777. Includes an index of the multitude of names mentioned.	188	Soft	£ 11.04	£ 21.14
Lamb's Tail Soup - Shepton Beauchamp in pictures	(Patricia Pearce) A collection of pictures from Shepton Beauchamp, spanning the 20th century, together with informative captions and explanatory text, where more information is available.	54	Soft	£ 7.04	£ 12.34
Langford (Every House Tells a Story)	(The Langford History Group) A history of some of Langford's older houses and the people who lived in them. Includes over 150 photographs, including a number of maps, and a comprehensive index.	229	Soft	£ 13.84	£ 21.39
Life and Times of Austin Cornelius, The	(A E Cornelius) The life experiences and memories of a farmer and haulier in the South Somerset area in the 20th century.	40	Soft	£ 3.88	£ 6.43
The Lives of the Rural Georgian Poor in Somerset 1700-1834	(Anne Murch). The author brings to life what it was really like to be a member of the rural poor during the Georgian period. Her findings are based on ten years of detailed research from many sources, primarily the accounts of the overseers of the poor law for six Somerset villages during the 18th and early 19th centuries. The book explores how the administration of the Old Poor Law directly affected the population, in areas ranging from housing and clothes to health care and funerals.	120	Soft	£ 13.52	£ 19.57
Livestock Markets, Cattle Dealers, Auctioneers, Farmers and Hauliers of the South West	(A E Cornelius) More memories from Austin Cornelius, this time concentrating on the people he came into contact with during his farming life.	28	Soft	£ 2.93	£ 5.16
Long Sutton as 'Twere	(Redvers Burt) A fond evocation of times past, the community evolving over two or three generations.	128	Soft	£ 10.94	£ 16.99
Lord of the Manor 1066-1920	(Geoffrey Stoate) Story of the successive owners at Wootton Courtenay, passed down through generations of inter related families.	99	Soft	£ 14.65	£ 20.70
Luccombe and Selworthy, The Book of	(Graham Haw) A pictorial history of the parish from the time of the Domesday Book.	176	Hard	£ 20.90	£ 31.79

Title	Description	No of Pages	Cover	Price (UK)	Price (OS)
Martock (More Martock Memories)	(Roy Maber) This story of a Somerset village was developed by the author by working hard to trawl his memory back through his childhood and later, and then researching the background to those memories to provide a more complete story. The book has many photographs and details of local life. There are also five appendices listing the village vicars, non-conformist preachers, village doctors, years with heavy rainfall, and characters and personalities.	124	Hard	£ 13.79	£ 21.34
Mells, A History of, third edition	(Rev F W Cleverdon) Describes many aspects of Mells history from the account in the Domesday book up to the 20th century. The photographs included have been improved, and some are in colour in this new edition. New photographs have replaced some of those in the earlier edition, and a revised index, making it more helpful, is included.	100	Soft	£ 9.44	£ 15.49
Montacute, Under the Shadow of the Hill 1939 - 1945	1945 (Clarence Bradley). The author, who moved to Montacute from Stoke-sub-Hamdon three years after his birth, joined the Air Training Corps in his teens. This nurtured in him an interest in military aviation and local people's involvement in the Second World War. For this book he has collected pen portraits of villagers who served at home and abroad, together with personal recollections of the village during wartime. Some group photographs are included, often with the individuals named.	112	Hard	£ 16.92	£ 24.47
My Life with Daphne	(Austin Cornelius) Tales of Austin's memories of life with his wife, starting from the times when she was a young girl.	25	Soft	£ 2.43	£ 4.66
No Thankful Village	(Chris Howell) The results of considerable research into the effect of The Great War on the villages around Midsomer Norton and Radstock, especially those serving in the armed forces. Information collated from letters, cuttings and memories.	224	Hard	£ 25.14	£ 36.84
North Cadbury Parish, A Social History of	(Sam Miller) A series of 32 chapters deal with many aspects of life in North Cadbury, Galhampton and Woolston, covering information such as parish registers, doctors' remedies, law and order, the militia, parish poor houses, apprentices, tradesmen and poor/church rates. A number of inhabitants are also included, including rectors John Askew and Jeremiah Littlejohn, and some families who, at times, relied on parish aid.	82	Soft	£ 7.94	£ 13.24
North Curry (The Glorious Dead – The Men of North Curry who Died in The Great War)	(Collin Trim) A short history of each of the 25 men from North Curry who are commemorated on the village war memorial. Victims of the Second World War are not covered.	32	Soft	£ 6.53	£ 11.83
Nunney and Trudoxhill in Somerset , A Window on	(ed Joyce Jefferson) The village of Trudoxhill was once part of the parish of Nunney, until it became a parish in its own right in 1950, hence the inclusion of both places in this book. This history of the two places starts with reference to the distant past and medieval times. Each chapter deals with a particular aspect of the villages, including their churches and chapels, education, World War I and II, local clubs and societies and law and order.	135	Soft	£ 17.10	£ 24.65
Nunney, The History of	(Anthony Windrum) Starting with the earliest settlement to the 20th Century, the history of the village has been researched thoroughly by the author, a village resident. Includes an index of names.	112	Soft	£ 10.94	£ 16.99
Oakhill &amp; Ashwick	(Oakhill & Ashwick Local History Group) A collection of old photographs of the parish, and memories of local people.	56	Soft	£ 9.44	£ 14.74
Old Mineral Line	(R.J.Sellick) Historical photographs and expert commentary tracing the history of the line once connecting Watchet Port to mines in the Brendon Hills.	64	Soft	£ 6.89	£ 12.00
Once Upon a Pint – A Reader's Guide to the Literary Pubs &amp; Inns of Dorset &amp; Somerset	Somerset (Terry Townsend) This book is a literary pub crawl around two of England's most beautiful and least spoilt shires, Dorset and Somerset, following in the steps of famous and lesser known writers. The author has included town pubs, country pubs, village pubs, riverside pubs and seaside pubs all with one thing in common; they have been immortalised by association with books or writers.	128	Hard	£ 13.92	£ 21.47
Only Our Best Was Good Enough	(Pam Woodburn) Memories of Locking Road School, Weston-S-Mare. Recollections & social history of the 1920s onwards.	64	Soft	£ 7.85	£ 12.19

Title	Description	No of Pages	Cover	Price (UK)	Price (OS)
Pitney - A letter From	(Maureen Wincott) The author, a keen local historian, has explored many topics in and around Somerset. During one of these pieces of research she connected with a previously unknown distant relative in Australia, who shared a letter written by her three times great grandmother to her great nephew who had emigrated from Pitney in Somerset. Several characters from Pitney were mentioned in the letter, and this inspired the author to carry out research around the mass emigration to the colonies from Pitney in the mid-19th century, which unearthed some amazing stories	60	Soft	£ 13.03	£ 18.33
Portishead &amp; Around Through Time	(Will Musgrave) A selection of over 180 photographs traces some of the many ways in which Portishead and two local villages, Pill and Long Ashton, have changed over the last century. The pictures are arranged in a 'then and now' fashion, so that direct comparisons may be made between today's colour photograph and the old one.	96	Soft	£ 18.43	£ 24.48
Records of the 1st Somerset Militia	(W.J.W.Kerr) From the origin, through the Seven Years, American & Napoleonic Wars, the Crimea and on to 1908.	109	Soft	£ 12.19	£ 18.24
Sancti Stones	(Susan Maria Farrington) A Millennium survey of surviving inscriptions in the churches and churchyards of Wiveliscombe, Somerset	220	Soft	£ 15.34	£ 22.89
Secure the Shadow - Somerset Photographers 1839 - 1939	(Robin Ansell, Allan Collier and Phil Nichols) This book is a celebration of Somerset's photographic history, as seen through the lives and work of nearly 800 photographers. Each photographer is listed with details of where he/she was working and when, together with an indication of the source of the information. The accompanying DVD contains more than 1,500 images mainly produced by Somerset photographers, and a mini-biography of each of the photographers.	105 plus 4.495 on the DVD	Soft	£ 15.70	£ 21.75
Somerset Airman, A	The story of an RAF armourer, who grew up in Frome on a small family farm. The story begins with an account of life on the farm, and continues with Eric's conscription into the services, and his time in foreign parts away from loved ones in a sleepy Somerset town.	190	Soft	£ 7.44	£ 13.49
Somerset at War Through Time	(Henry Buckton) Somerset's contribution to the Second World War was extremely varied. This book includes pictures of coastal defences at places like Brean Down and Merryfield, Glastonbury's preparation for occupation, naval fighter pilot training at Yeovilton and much more. The same places are also pictured today.	128	Soft	£ 18.43	£ 24.48
Somerset – Curious and Surprising	(Jack Sweet) The author describes the many times and the variety of ways in which the people of Somerset enjoyed themselves – sometimes very oddly indeed – in those 'good old days' when the world and our lives were simpler. He tells of outings to the seaside, the fun to be had at pantomimes, carnivals, fetes and wedding celebrations, the pleasure of picking worts (bilberries) on Exmoor and many more recollections of those times.	144	Hard	£ 15.12	£ 25.67
Somerset Follies	(Jonathan Holt) A fascinating look at dozens of follies throughout the old county of Somerset, including the area around Bath, the most densely follied city in the land.	129	Soft	£ 13.44	£ 19.49
Somerset Pubs	(Andrew Swift & Kirsten Elliot) High quality photographs of over 140 pubs in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Coaching inns rub shoulders with back-street beerhouses, time-worn taverns with road-side hostelries. The majority is from picture postcards.	96	Soft	£ 11.94	£ 17.99
Somerset; Shocking, Surprising and Strange	(Jack W Sweet) A collection of fifty tales of murder, mayhem and mishap, ranging from Mary Adlam killing her drunken husband in Regency Bath, a test flight crash at Yeovil and mine disasters in the Somerset coalfields, to the missing ballot papers of Langport in the parish council elections of 1894 and the Reckleford School riot of 1921. Together, these stories present a vivid picture of Somerset at its most shocking, surprising and strange.	144	Hard	£ 16.92	£ 24.47
Somerset, Tales of Old	(Sally Norris) A collection of stories from the past. Some tell of ancient customs and festivals, others bring to life moments of drama and mystery, and of romance and courage.	128	Soft	£ 9.89	£ 15.19
Somerset Voices – A Celebration of Memories	(Ann Heeley, Louise Clapp & Liz Snelgrove) Life is shown as it really was in the twentieth century in the words of those who have lived through great changes, drawn from a collection of over six hundred oral recordings of Somerset people made since 1973. Copiously illustrated.	144	Hard	£ 20.13	£ 31.83
Somerset's Forgotten Heroes	(Roger Evans) The story of more than 80 Somerset men and women whose exceptional courage or outstanding qualities make them true heroes.	112	Soft	£ 11.39	£ 17.44

Title	Description	No of Pages	Cover	Price (UK)	Price (OS)
Somerton (To Somerton with Love)	(Sheila Jeffries) A light-hearted portrait of life in Somerton in the forties and fifties. Includes a chapter on Compton Dundon and Littleton. Includes over 25 photographs.	78	Soft	£ 10.93	£ 16.23
Stiby, Henry - His Life &amp; Times	(Robin Ansell) An amateur photographer, ironmonger and civic Leader, Henry Stiby was born in Sherborne, was an apprentice to an ironmongers in Devizes and then lived for the rest of his life in Yeovil. He was elected Mayor of Yeovil in 1904, became a Justice of the Peace in 1906 and an Alderman in 1907.	20	Soft	£ 5.04	£ 10.34
Stoke St Michael in Old Photographs	(Joyce Jefferson, Jennie O'Kane & Janet Jacob) A pictorial record of the village and its people over the last 120 years. Include approximately 350 photographs.	90	Soft	£ 12.79	£ 18.84
Watchet, (Book of Watchet)	(David Banks) The photographs do a wonderful job of capturing an entire century. Will you recognise people & locations?	160	Soft	£ 18.09	£ 29.79
Wedmore (More Wedmore Past)	(Hazel Hudson) A pictorial history of the parish of Wedmore, from the late 1800s to the end of the Second World War. Contains over 100 photographs, with many of the individuals named.	81	Soft	£ 12.44	£ 18.49
Wedmore (The New Wedmore Chronicles)	(Hazel Hudson) A compilation of one hundred articles, originally written for the local newspaper, about families, properties crimes and traditions of previous generations of Wedmore inhabitants. References and a comprehensive index have been added. Includes 90 illustrations.	296	Soft	£ 20.03	£ 31.73
Wellington Through Time	(Douglas Marshall) A selection of over 180 photographs traces some of the many ways in which Wellington has changed over the last century. The pictures are arranged in a 'then and now' fashion, so that direct comparisons may be made between today's colour photograph and the old one.	96	Soft	£ 16.43	£ 22.48
Wells and the Great War	(Eric Galvin) This book is based on detailed research into the lives and experiences of the nineteen men, from twelve families, listed on the roll of honour in the Catholic Church of SS Joseph and Teresa in Wells. Starting from the formation of the Catholic community, biographies of each of the men are provided, including a nationally known barrister, a renowned Indian doctor, a jobbing gardener, and two men who were occasionally in trouble with the law. This is followed by a look at the 'Home Front' in Wells, and aspects of the end of hostilities and the survival of remembrance ceremonies through to the current day.	94	Soft	£ 12.93	£ 18.23
Wells, A Pictorial History	(Tony Scrase) A perceptive vision of this smallest of cities as seen through over 170 photographs. (Special price)	118	Hard	£ 12.34	£ 19.89
Wells – It was Like this in Old Brown's Time	(Jack Paul) The story of W & H Paul, a family firm, from 1893 to 1990. William Paul advertised in 1893 that he was starting business on his own account as a painter and decorator. This book tells the story of the family run firm.	67	Soft	£ 13.69	£ 19.74
West Buckland-Through a Glass Darkly	(James Skeggs) The author began writing when, in his first term at secondary school, he produced an essay entitled 'History of my Village'. Since then he has written numerous articles on local and natural history. This little book, published in 1995, recounts a portion of the history of the area in which this village sits, without too much hard history.	46	Soft	£ 5.98	£ 11.28
William Barnes – The Somerset Engravings	(Lawrence Keen) Remembered in Dorset as a poet and parson, he was also an accomplished wood engraver. 73 are illustrated here.	62	Soft	£ 8.89	£ 14.19
Wilton (History of Wilton Gaol)	(Peter Parrish) An absorbing and interesting account of the Taunton penal institutions, particularly in the 19th century.	60	Soft	£ 6.03	£ 11.33
Wincanton, Town Tales	(Jenny Peet) A fascinating collection of memories, from the 1920s onwards, of 20 residents of the town.	122	Soft	£ 8.44	£ 14.49
Workhouse	(Ken Griffiths) A brief glimpse of the Poor Law and life inside Clutton Union-house. A small format booklet of 14 pages.	14	Soft	£ 2.93	£ 5.16
Yeovil School 1845-1995 – Old Yeovilians' Association	(David Shorey) John Aldridge's School, Kingston School, Yeovil County School, Yeovil School: 1845, 1850, 1925, 1938, 1974, 1995; all names and dates that trace the life of a school which lived and died, but its Old Yeovilians lives on. 150 years is a suitable point to gather together the school's and the OY Association's history. This book does not include many words, but a great number of photographs, which will bring back memories into the minds of those who scan the pages; old boys, parents, relation, friends, associates and past school masters alike.	96	Hard	£ 11.50	£ 19.15

Title	Description	No of Pages	Cover	Price (UK)	Price (OS)
Yeovil, Letters Home to in the Great War	(Jack Sweet) During the First World War, Yeovil men and women served on the Western Front, in Belgium and France, and many other places. Letters to and from home were welcomed by all recipients and during the four years of the war. the Western Gazette published a weekly column Yeovil and the War which included letters, either in full or extract, sent home to friends and relations by local men serving at the various fronts. The 124 letters published in the pages of this book are the authentic voices of those who were there a century ago.	86	Soft	£ 13.00	£ 19.05
Your Somerset Family	(S.C.C.) A guide to tracing your family history in the Somerset Record Office.	12	Soft	£ 5.09	£ 7.64
Your Somerset House	(Derek Shorrocks) A guide to tracing the history of your house in the Somerset Record Office.	23	Soft	£ 6.04	£ 11.34